

2023 Northeast Farmers Market After Dark @ Bauhaus Brew Labs

Fees, Application and Attendance

- All Vendor fees must be paid by April 14th, 2023. Make checks payable to NE Farmers Market and mail to: NEFM, PO Box 68067, Minneapolis MN 55418
- Submitting an application does not guarantee acceptance into the Northeast Farmers Market After Dark.
- All vendors seeking participation must provide a complete application in order to be eligible. With consideration, the market looks for diversity in products, handmade, local and sustainable products, and vendor commitment.
- Vendor must notify Market Manager of their absence before any scheduled market date via email, phone call, or text.
- There are no refunds for vendors unless the market determines otherwise on a case-by-case basis.
- Notice of market cancellations will be issued by the Market Manager as far in advance as possible and will be by phone and/or by email directly with all vendors affected.

Set-up, Stalls and Parking

- Vendors must supply their own tables, tablecloth, chairs, signage, materials, and tents. Vendors have a 10' by 10' space and may park inside the lot, but not next to the booth space.
- Vendor may begin setting up at 5:00pm on the event day. Please be ready to sell by 6:00pm. Vendors must start breaking down promptly at 9:00pm.
- The Market Manager will be onsite to assist vendors. Vendors may drive vehicles into the parking lot to unload. Parking will be available onsite.

- All vendors are expected to clean up their area after usage. Garbage, compost and recycling facilities are available onsite.
- Vendors must display a sign indicating name and location of farm and/or business. Signs must not be an obstruction to visitors or other vendors.

All Vendors

- All vendors must be bona fide producers of locally grown produce. No wholesale products are allowed. Non-farm produce and home produced items such as wild rice, maple syrup, canned goods, baked goods, crafts, etc., must be approved by the Northeast Minneapolis Farmers Market Board of Directors.
- Vendors are not allowed to sell any product/item at the market that they did not make themselves. No two vendors are allowed to sell their items in the same space nor can a vendor sell a product for someone else.
- A vendor who may be involved in more than one business entity is limited to selling at the market as only one of those business entities. Exceptions may be made on a case-by-case basis.
- Vendors whose products or practices place them in more than one category are subject to all the requirements of both categories.
- The NEFM does not offer exclusive rights to any one vendor to sell any one product. Market customers generally benefit from having a choice. However, if the NEFM believes the number of vendors offering similar products is excessive, duplicate products may be denied entry.
- Produce and crafts must be of good quality. The Northeast Minneapolis Farmers Market can order sellers to withdraw poor quality items from the market.
- Any required sales tax collections and remittances are the sole responsibility of the vendors.
- All items for sale must be clearly marked with their retail price. Prices may be posted on the product with an individual sign or posted as a list of prices on a large sign or board.
- Vendors are not permitted to use the following techniques while at the market: hawking, calling attention to products in a loud manner, selling in an aggressive way, and leaving one's stall to sell a product.

- The Northeast Minneapolis Farmers Market, the City of Minneapolis, and Bauhaus Brew Labs will not be held responsible for any injuries or accidents that occur on the premises during set up, market time or take down.
- The Market Manager has the ultimate onsite authority to enforce all rules of the market and to mediate disputes.

General Rules

- Discourtesy to patrons or other vendors, obscene language or shouting is not permitted.
- There is no smoking or E-cigarettes allowed onsite.
- Selling must be performed within the designated area only. Soliciting is prohibited.
- Proper attire is expected, includes shirts and shoes.
- All vendors must be aware of and conform to all local, state and federal ordinances and rules that may pertain to their product.
- No one under the age of 16 may sell or maintain a stall without an adult supervisor present.
- No person or entity other than the Northeast Minneapolis Farmers Market may make use of the Northeast Farmers Market name or logo with out the permission of the Market staff and Board of Directors.
- All vendors must agree to be inspected if the Northeast Farmers Market determines that a complaint has sufficient cause pertaining to violations of the rules.

Weather-Related Cancellations

- The Northeast Farmers Market After Dark is open snow or shine. However, since the market is held outside, the NEFM reserves the right to close the market (with or without prior notice) if it is determined that severe weather conditions could compromise the safety of vendors and shoppers.
- If unexpected extreme weather occurs and the “Warning” is issued the day of, or during the market, the Market Manager will cancel the market.

The Northeast Farmers Market may make changes, additions, and/or deletions to the Rules and Regulations, as needed.

The Northeast Farmers Market will establish, implement and enforce all procedures, rules and regulations pertaining to the operation of the market in a fair, nondiscriminatory and equitable manner.

2023 Market After Dark
4th Tuesday, May - October
6:00pm – 9:00pm

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

Location:

Bauhaus Brew Labs, 1315 Tyler Street NE, Mpls 55413
<https://www.bauhausbrewlabs.com/>

Mailing Address:

Northeast Farmers Market (NEFM)
PO Box 68067
Minneapolis, MN 55418

Contact:

Market Manager
sarah@northeastmarket.org

Northeast Farmers Market Mission Statement

The Northeast Farmers Market adds to the livability of the neighborhood by providing a welcoming and accessible community market and gathering place. We contribute to the success of local growers and producers and foster sustainability in the Northeast community.